Fearful Explosion.

Fearful Explosion.

So great was the force of the explosion that all but ten feet of the rear portion of the car was blown into small pleces, while windows within a radius of a quarter of a mile were shattered.

The immediate vicinity of the accident presented a fearful speciacle when those in the neighborhood reached the Acene. The ground was strewn with legs, arms and other portions of the bodies of those who had been killed, while shricks and groans came from the withing forms of the injured.

The car contained mostly men on their way to their homes in this city, the accident taking place only a quarter of a mile from Meirose center. Within a few minutes, a crowd had collected and the injured were cared for until the physicians, not only from Meirose, but from Medford, Everatt and Maiden reached the scene. For more than three hours, there was the greatest confusion and it was difficult to obtain the names of any of the dead or injured, or to ascertain the cause of the accident. Thousands of people rushed about trying to find relatives and friends injured, or to ascertain the cause accident. Thousands of people

VIRGINIA BUILDING, WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, ST. LOUIS, MO., September 21.—Large crowds from the Old Dominion arrived on each incoming train to-day and it is expected that fully three thousand Virginians will be present at the exercises on Virginia Day.

The first function in donnection with the Virginia celebration will occur tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Virginia Building, when the Virginia Soclety of St. Louis will tender a reception to the Governor and his suaff. There will be several short speeches on this occasion. Mr. Frank N. Johnson, president of the Society, will introduce Hon.
H. T. Kent, formerly of Virginia and a brother of Professor Charles T. Kent, of the University of Virginia, Ho will welcome the Governor and his party in behalf of the Virginia Society. The Governor will respond in a brief address. President Francis will then deliver an address and Hon, James Hageman, of the Missouri Bar Association, will close the programme. The Stonewall Brigade Band will, of course, furnish muste for the occasion. The band is receiving a great ovation. It appeared for the first tipte since their arrival in their dress uniforms and made

Company. General Fitzhugh Lee is expected to arrive to-night or to-morrow, but it could not be ascertained where he would be quartered.

The Blues are having a splendid time, and have been busy seeing the sights. They were pretty well frozen last night, as the thermometer was around forty when reville was sounded this morning. Notwithstanding this the boys are in fine spirits, and have made a decided impresson here. They will give their first dress parade to-morrow afternoon on the plaza of St. Louis, and unquestionably they will have a large crowd to witness the spectacle.

bly they will have a large crowd to witness the spectacle.

In camp with the Virginians, there are two regiments from Arkansas, and the Essex Fusilers, of Windsor, Canada, Last night was the first the other troops had been in camp and the comradeship which has sprung up among the Blues and the other soldiers is noticeable. Particularly strong is the friendship, which has been made between the Blues and the Canadians, who are a fine lot of fellows. The battallon will, of course, take part in the parade on Friday, Virginia day, and an effort has been made to have the Canadians participate.

The only rift in the lute is the announcement by the Evening Post that it will bolt the ticket because it says Judgo a prick has maintained his position as political boss of his county since his elevation to the bench.

since his elevation to the bench.

D. Cady Herrick, the nominee for Governor, for years has been the opponent of former Senator Hill, but recently they patched up their differences. He is skyty years of age. He inherited $75,000, which is believed to be his present fortuno.

For years Judge Herrick was a leader of Albany county Democrats, succeeding Daniel Manning. In 1856 he was appointed to the Supreme Court bench. He has been said by lawyers of both parties to be fair, impartial and able. He fined the State Board of Canvassers for canvassing the returns of Duchess county when Hill succeeded in getting the senatorship through Maynard.

Francis Burton Harrison, the candidate for the lieutenant-governorship, is the youngest of those whose names appear on the ticket, being only thirty years of age. He is a graduate of Yale. He is a son of the late Burton N. Harrison, private secretary to President Jefferson Davis during the Civil War. He was admitted to the bar in 1898, but on the outbreak of the war with Spain he enlisted in Troop A, as a private, and went to the front. He reached the rank of captain before the termination of hostilities.

sented to the convention the name of Supreme Court Justice Daniel Cady Herick, of Albany. Judge Herrick's name was received with great enthusiasm and endorsed with cordial speeches of sup-port by representatives of three of the elements whose attitude had been as important factor in the serious situation which had formed the subject of the conference. Incidentally Senator Illi was accorded a reception which was little less than an ovation.

State Senator Patrick H. McCarren and Tammany Hall, under the leadership of Charles F. Murphy.

Duncan Campbell Lee, of Hhaca, per-manent chairman of the convention, made an extended speech, in which he attack-ed the Republican State administration, charging it with extravagance and criti-cised Governor Odell himself for his ac-ceptance of dual role of Governor and chairman of the Republican State Com-mittee. The platform adopted includes a direct personal attack on Governor Odell, as well as a denunciation of Republican ad-ministrations, endorsement of the Demoministrations, endorsement of the Denocratic national ticket, platform and resolutions and strongly worded discussion of State and national issues from the Democratic point of view.
